10th Annual

March₁₀ - April₂₈

ABOUT THE SHOW

ArtsRevive is calling Alabama artists to participate in their tenth annual juried art exhibition. Over the years this show has grown in size and popularity. It has become well known for its selection of unique, diverse and quality art. Patrons look forward to the wide selection of art available for viewing and/or purchase. Many artists have gained recognition and established a following through their participation in this show. The exhibition coincides with the annual Selma Pilgrimage, allowing guests from across the south the opportunity to admire the work of Alabama artists. This year we are proud to announce that the show will be held in the ArtsRevive Carneal building at 3 Church Street in historic downtown Selma, Alabama.

JUROR

Ted Whisenhunt, an Alabama native, received a Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree from Birmingham-Southern College in 1995. Upon graduation, he studied ornamental iron, black-smithing, and metal fabrication techniques under noted Birmingham artisan Robert Lehman. After his apprenticeship with Lehman, Ted continued his education at Florida State University where he earned a Master of Fine Arts Degree in 1998. Since then, he has studied traditional Italian oil painting at the University of Lorenzo de Medici in Florence, Italy during the Summer of 2003. Ted served as the Head of the Art Department at Judson College in Marion, Alabama where he taught courses in painting, sculpture, and design from 1998 - 2009. Ted is currently the Chair of the Art Department and Associate Professor of Art at Young Harris College in North Georgia. Ted currently resides in Young Harris, GA with his wife Eloise and their two children, Huck and Eloise.
